Paddles for Canoe Team

Dave Ellery, a member of the Alberta Centennial Canoe Team is shown above at work in his basement shop where he is turning out the paddles to be used by the Alberta team in the Canadian Canoe Pageant this summer. Dave's paddles, featuring a wider blade and less weight, have been tried by the team and found superior to others tested. The paddles are constructed of laminated spruce and finished with a coating of fibre glass.

Seek Location for New Boys' School

Drayton Valley was visited last Saturday by representatives of St. John's Cathedral Boys School of Selkirk, Manitoba, who are investigating sites in Alberta for the establishment of a second school.

Representing the school were Mr. Ted Byfield and Mr. David Thompson. Also present was Mr. Hugh Baker of Pan-American, Calgary, who's son is now enrolled in the Manitoba School.

After a luncheon meeting with members of Town Council and interested citizens, the party toured the area to view possible locations. As well as the car tour, Roy Burrows made his aircraft available to permit a view of sites not readily accessible by road.

Ken Landers' familiarity with the area was put to use and he guided the road tour of the area.

Prerequisites of a site are proximity to the river and hilly, wooded terrain. These are required as the school's major sports activities center around canoeing and snow shoeing.

Boys from the school at Selkirk take part in lengthy canoe trips. Two years ago one expedition travelled the length of the Saskatchewan River from Rocky Mountain House to Lake Winnipeg.

Snowshoe races cover distances from 20 to 50 miles. These and the canoe trips are not planned as recreation but are a definite part of the school curriculum intended to present an arduous challenge to be accomplished.

Another requirement of the new site is availability of farm land as the school operates an agricultural program to widen the experience of the boys and to raise capital funds.

St. John's, with an enrollment of about 100 boys from grade 6 to 12, has three basic purposes: to teach boys to think for themselves so that they can develop their own convictions; to develop in boys a spirit of adventure that will induce them to put their convictions into action; and to raise the level of religious education so that Christian doctrine can be made more relevant to modern life.

The school to be built in Alberta would accommodate a few less boys than at Selkirk to start, but would be enlarged as necessary.

The visiting party was impressed with the Drayton Valley area, noting that it contained much of the rugged type of terrain desired. They also expressed pleasure with their reception here and the effort made to provide them with all the information required.

A number of other Alberta sites are also being visited before a decision on the location of the new school is finalized.

Meeting Hears of ARDA Activities

The work of ARDA (Area Rehabilitation and Development Act) throughout Alberta was described at a supper meeting in the Cardium Room of the Drayton Valley Hotel Monday evening.

The meeting was sponsored by the Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce and attracted an audience from the town and several points in the surrounding area.

Speakers for the evening were Mr. Gordon Sterling, ARDA Director for Alberta and Mr. Frank Belyea, an ARDA resources development officer stationed at Edson. Chairman of the meeting was Roy Burrows, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce and the program was arranged by Wally Peters.

The speakers, with the aid of a flannel board demonstration, showed how ARDA could affect the lives of both urban and rural people. They laid particular stress on the necessity of co-operation between farm and town residents to bring about improvements for mutual benefit. This was termed "total community approach."

Work on the pilot project in Census Division 14 (Edson-Hinton-Whitecourt-east to Pembina River) was described and it was stated that it would not be too much longer before similar projects get underway in other grey-wooded areas of the province.

Farm adjustment and land clearing have been primary objectives in the area with uneconomic farms being bought up and resold or leased as parts of more economic units while the former owners are re-located or re-trained for another vocation.

Tourism and recreation were felt to be neglected parts of the economy of the area and help is being given to revitalize this potential source of revenue in CD14. As a start ARDA has provided help in construction of a Lions Club park in Edson that is hoped will hold tourists in the town for overnight stops or longer.

Forty projects were undertaken with ARDA assistance between 1962 and 1965 at a cost of 6.8 million dollars, of which the Federal portion was 2.6 million. Forty seven projects at a cost of 10.6 million, Federal share 4.7 million, are planned between 1965 and 1970. Another seven projects involving 5.4 million dollars have been approved by the provincial government and are now awaiting federal approval.

Some of the agricultural projects undertaken include erosion control, irrigation development, shelter belts, grazing association improvements, soil and crop management and land reclamation.

Several points were raised from the floor and when it appeared that agricultural problems were of major concern the speakers suggested a meeting at a later date that would be devoted entirely to agriculture. It was suggested that FUA locals arrange meetings for this purpose.

Annual meeting of ratepayers of the town of Drayton Valley will be held in the Town Hall at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, February 27.

The auditor's financial statement for the year ending December 31st, 1966, has been printed and was distributed last week to all property owners.

The annual meeting is intended to inform the public and it is your opportunity to learn about the town's operation during the past year and possibly ask questions to obtain additional information.

Mayor Howard Pickup (left) and E.M.O. Co-ordinator A. G. Chesterman are shown during a discussion of Emergency Measures with the Western Review Publisher.

LOCAL CO-ORDINATOR PRAISES E.M.O. CHANGES

Mayor Howard Pickup and E.M.O. Co-ordinator, Councillor A.G. Chesterman, represented Drayton Valley at the Alberta Emergency Measures Organization Municipal Conference in Red Deer recently.

They report a change in thinking and planning of E.M.O. Although a nuclear war is still a grave possibility the real and ever-present danger of local disaster is getting first billing and programs are now putting more emphasis on this phase of the organization's work.

Stockpiling of equipment and supplies is progressing favorably. Supplies that could deteriorate with age are kept fresh by an agreement with the Red Cross and other agencies who draw from the stockpiles to meet disasters the world over and then replace quantities used with fresh supplies.

Progress of E.M.O. in Alberta is unequaled by any other part of Canada. In Alberta 85 percent of all incorporated municipalities are organized with basic plans and some annexes (fire department, police, welfare, etc.). Drayton Valley rates high on the list with several completed annexes.

Eight 200-bed emergency hospitals have been stored in various parts of Alberta to meet the possibility of area disasters. One of these is stored in Drayton Valley.

Part of one was flown to Yellowknife last winter to replace the hospital destroyed by fire there. It was operational within 24 hours of the fire.

Both of the Drayton Valley representatives were enthusiastic about the new, modern E.M.O. that is coming of age. It has a local value, Mr. Chesterman said, that cannot be ignored by any municipality.

F. Hannochko Retires As School Superintendent

After almost a half-century as an educator, Mr. Fred Hannochko retired last month from the staff of the Alberta Department of Education as superintendent of schools for the Stony Plain Division.

However, Mr. Hannochko has not fully retired from the field. He was promptly hired by the Stony Plain School Board as Assistant Superintendent. It is expected he will remain with the division until mid-summer, at which time he plans an extended holiday trip to Europe.

Meantime, the Alberta Department of Education is looking for a replacement for Mr. Hannochko and a new appointment is expected shortly. In addition to the new superintendent it is expected the School Board will maintain an assistant superintendent to a assist the secretary in the growing work load.

Mr. Hannochko, who lives in Edmonton, was born in 1902 and began teaching school about 1921. He was appointed as superintendent at Two Hills in 1937 and Stony Plain in 1956.

ENCOURAGED PROGRESS

During his 10 years as superintendent at Stony Plain Division, Mr. Hannochko encouraged progress and has seen many changes take place. When he came here there were 29 school centres in the division. Today there are ten. During the same period the division spent more than three million dollars on school buildings and facilities.

Ten years ago the enrolment was 3126 students; today the figure stands at 4019. The teaching staff grew from 144 teachers to 178. He also nursed the growing pains at Drayton Valley where in 1954 there were only four teachers. Today there are 50, as well as a new ten-room Separate School.

However, Mr. Hannochko's greatest satisfaction comes from the final realization of a new Vocational Wing in Stony Plain. The $650,000 structure is now under construction and will be ready for the fall term. -Stony Plain Reporter

SMALL TOWNS 'OFTEN EARN THEIR DOOMS'

Many smaller communities in the province will disappear in five to fifteen years, the Alberta manager of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce said last week.

They will disappear no matter what is done. "There is no economic justification for them." Reg Clark told members of the Leduc and District Chamber of Commerce at its annual meeting.

But, he said, a number of others could stay alive if the residents start taking action.

"The greatest contributing factor to their death is the lack of support by people who live in that community." Mr. Clark said.

Mr. Clark said the future of the smaller communities will have to be studied and "the logical people to do it would be the government."

He feels some communities now "hanging by a thread" could survive if they amalgated with other nearby small communities.

"They talk about marginal farms, but there are marginal communities also."

He said if a community loses 75 per cent of its trade to another, "how can it survive on 25 per cent?"

"Sooner or later the local businessmen have to learn that competition isn't around the corner--it's in the next town or city. The businessmen have to co-operate more than they are doing."

Gymkhana Club Bowling Party

The Lariat Gymkhana Club held a bowling party on Sunday, February 19th. Although it was agreed that some members could handle horses considerably better than they could bowl it was an enjoyable afternoon.

Prize winners were: Adult High, Jim Isberg; Adult Low, Penny LaPointe; Junior High, Dale Guze and David Meston, tied; Junior Low, Barry Butz.

Decorations Lagging

What's happened to Drayton Valley's Centennial spirit. We went all out for a while until our major project was completed but now appear to be lagging in enthusiasm.

Communities across Alberta are decking themselves out with centennial flags, lights and motifs. In many communities it's hard to find a business place that is not decorated and the enthusiasm carries over to residential areas. Why not in Drayton Valley?

This newspaper suggested earlier some sort of use of Christmas lights, if only on certain occasions, and flags are available from many sources, including the local Lions Club.

Let's start decorating and give centennial a boost--you're only going to be around for one.

Winter Driving Hazardous

Winter driving in northern Alberta presents hazards that many of us don't often think about. We should--it could save lives.

Car trouble or slipping into the ditch could prove disastrous on one of the remote roads.

Traffic on some of the roads, particularly at night, is light to zero and your chances of being picked up are rather thin. But with proper clothing, a small axe and means of starting a fire you would survive the night--uncomfortably, but alive.

The brothers La Verendrye came in sight of the Rocky Mountain foothills on New Year's Day, 1743. The brothers, Francois and Louis Joseph, belonged to a prominent family of Quebec fur traders who explored deep into the continent.

In 1739, Francois led the expedition which discovered the Saskatchewan River. In 1742, with Joseph, he started exploring the country to the southwest, and, eventually they reached the foothills of the Rockies.

The brothers found that the Indians to the south had numerous horses, mules and asses, which had descended from the first horses brought to the continent by the Spaniards at Mexico and California. The natives had not developed the wheel, and their only previous beast of burden had been the dog. They eagerly acquired horses from the Spaniards and from each other, through capture or trading, and helped spread them rapidly throughout the continent.

The possession of horses brought about an entirely new way of life for the Indians. Hunters could surround and chase down the buffalo on which they depended for food, clothing and shelter. Tiresome foot journeys could be made rapidly on horseback, and heavy loads carried easily with the travois, a sort of sled. Horses also gave them greater speed and mobility in warfare.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor.

Dear Sir:

Although I am not a Canadian, I am interested in the Centenary Year, and all the projects, but it has struck me, how very few of these schemes include any for the elderly citizens who after all, made and started Canada.

I would like to see Drayton Valley build a home to enable them to live there. I believe it was suggested some time ago, but it must have fallen through. I think it could be done, and run by the various ladies committes, who are so active in this town.

I would like to see a home built, within easy reach of town so that those who are able to do so, could do their shopping.

I have two sites in mind. one is McFarland's Lumber yard, and the land by the side of Stedman's Store.

Now ladies what about it, the men have worked hard to have a Sports Arena, so let us do something for the Pioneers.

Yours sincerely,
Enid Waugh.

Guaranteed Income Program Outlined by Mrs. Wood

By Mrs. C.R. Wood, M.L.A.

The $1 05 guaranteed income program of the Federal Government, is a $30 maximum supplement to Old Age Security Pensions and begins January 1st, 1967 to pensioners who can qualify on income tests. It means that a pensioner with no income will receive $1,260 a year made up of the $900 Old Age Security and the $360 supplement. A married couple with no other income could receive $2,520.

Those recipients with more income than that will have a reduction of $1.00 for each $2.00 earned.

The Minister of Welfare, Hon. L.C. Halmrast has announced that applications for Alberta Supplementary Allowance were discontinued in 1961 when the Alberta Social Allowance Program was introduced. The Federal change in the Old Age Security makes it necessary to adjust the ceilings of the receipts for those persons who applied before 1961. Single recipients of Alberta Supplementary Allowance of $15 per month, Federal Pension $75 per month and Federal Supplement of $30 per month a total of $1,440 per year. Under this, married recipients may receive $2,460 to $3,000 per year.

Old Age Security recipients who since 1961 have been on Alberta Social Allowance, will continue to receive benefits according to individual needs and will receive Old Age Security of $75 per month and the Federal Supplement of $30 per month and any additional sum under Social Allowance to meet their individual needs.

Medical cards will continue to be provided for any person in receipt of Alberta Supplementary Allowance or Alberta Social Allowance. Any person, in future, who transfers from a Provincial Welfare program to the Federal Old Age Security will keep his medical card provided his income does not exceed $1,620 per year.

With these changes, the older people of Alberta will be well taken care of in matters of income, housing and medical benefits, Hon. Mr. Halmrast says.

Old Age Security recipients are receiving forms along with a green and brown pamphlet explaining how to fill them out. Each one is asked to fill out the forms as soon as possible and send them in the enclosed addressed envelope.

Applicants are to report property rents, dividends, business profits and professional fees collected. Listed income will be checked with the Income Tax Department.

DRAYTON VALLEY WELL REPRESENTED

Canoe Team Announced

The 1967 crew of the "David Thompson", Alberta's entry in the Centennial Voyageur Canoe Pageant, will include men from five centres in the province, the Honourable Ambrose Holowach, Provincial Secretary and Chairman of the Alberta Centennial Committee, announced recently. Selection of the crew was made with the assistance of the Alberta Commodore, John Nikel of Edmonton, and Dr. Geoffrey Elliott of the University of Alberta, who assisted in the physical training program for the candidates.

Captain of the "David Thompson" is Vic Maxwell, motel owner and big game guide of Rocky Mountain House, the scene of the start of the Pageant on May 24, 1967. David Ellery, an employee of Pembina Pipeline and Archie Griffith, a battery operator for Dome Petroleum, both residing in Drayton Valley; brothers Albert and George Abel own a carpentry business in Calgary; also from Calgary is Bob Poluck, a city inspector; Adam Borys is a city policeman in Medicine Hat; and the two Edmontonians on the crew are David Maclure and Kenneth Hardy, both University of Alberta students. David Mclure is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. Maclure of Drayton Valley.

Communities all along the route of the Pageant are planning receptions which will range from Indian battles to barbecues, and sprint and lap prizes will be competed for by the 10 canoe teams. Each man who completes the entire trip to Montreal will receive $1,000, with the winning team receiving an additional $1,500 each man, the second place team $1,000 each, and the third place team an extra $500.

The "David Thompson" crew will commence an intensive training program shortly. This will include actual on-the-water training as well as physical exercise and life-saving.

Each canoe is named for one of the early explorers of Canada, and the "David Thompson" was named to honour that famous explorer and map-maker, who was the first white man to travel and map the Columbia River, and who founded the first fort and trading post at Rocky Mountain House in Alberta.

If you can't see what's so special about our brewing water...

...these will help

Our water looks much like other water. Even though it has come 82 miles down a natural pipeline from the Rockies. You can't see how cool, clear and perfectly pure it is. But you get that smooth, satisfying taste, thanks to our special water. That and natural ageing. Quite an eye-opener, isn't it?

THE WESTERN REVIEW

DRAYTON VALLEY, ALBERTA

Vol. III, No. 8 Feb. 22, 1967

ATTEND BANQUET AT ROCKY

Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce was represented at the annual meeting and banquet of the Rocky Mountain House Chamber of Commerce by a carload from here that motored to Rocky for the event last Thursday evening.

Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Smith and Mr. Roy Burrows.

The Drayton Valley contingent was extended a cordial welcome by members of the Rocky Chamber of Commerce and in particular by the town's mayor, Miss Helen Huntley.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Charles Kennedy, manager of the Alberta Livestock Marketing Association. Mr. Ken Retallack, who will be moving to Drayton Valley shortly as manager of the Hudson's Bay Store, is the outgoing president of the Rocky Chamber and was master of ceremonies for the occasion.

The Drayton Valley visitors were impressed with the beautiful new Presbyterian Church where the meeting was held. They were also indebted to Miss Scott of Rocky Mountain House, who took the time to guide them through the building.

Mental Health Talk Planned

You are again invited to a most interesting and informative evening at St. Anthony's School at 8:30 p.m. on Monday, March 6th by the C.W.L. and its friends.

The speaker will be Mr. C. Robert Dickey, Executive Director of the Alberta Division of the Canadian Mental Health Association.

If you were disturbed by the recent series on Mental Illness by Karen Harding in the Edmonton Journal, or if you have a close relative or friend who is mentally ill you are strongly urged to attend this meeting.

Mr. Dickey will answer any questions you may have on all phases of the mental illness field.

Would your family be the one family out of four to be affected by mental illness or would you be the one out of ten to become mentally ill tomorrow?

Keep Fit Classes

Are you fit to be seen?.... In shorts or a bathing suit in about three months time? Do you want to feel lively and more vigorous? These are the benefits to be gained by attending the Keep Fit Class sponsored by the Drayton Valley Recreation Council.

Classes are from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. every Tuesday in St. Anthony's Separate School. It is open to all females now. A small operating fee of $2.00 for the entire remaining series will be charged.

Observe Scouting Anniversary

Scouts started in Drayton Valley in the late fall of 1954. There were approximately twelve Scouts and 20 Cubs. The Scout Masters were Andy Trimble and Herb Rutz. The Cub Master was Ray Wickens.

The Anglican Church sponsored the group for two years and meetings were held in the small hall beside the Church. The first noteworthy visitor was Bishop Clark of the Anglican Church who came and talked to the cubs one evening during the first year.

The group committee was small but effective; the chairman was Angus MacNeill and the members were Marie Flewelling, Frank Flewelling, Hugh Coffin, Mike Burke and Bob Clarkson.

The first Boy Scout Ice Carnival was held in 1955 and has since been an annual event. The present Scout Hall was built early in 1955 and was financed by donations from industry, organizations and the community. The hall was built mostly by volunteer workers and was opened in July, 1955. The Rotary Club of Drayton Valley held their first charter night on that occasion.

The Stony Plain School Division used the hall for two class rooms during the winter of 1955-56 and although cold, it served a very worthwhile purpose. By this time the Scout troop had increased to approximately thirty and the cub pack had soared to ninety.

The first Cub Camp was in 1956 and was held on the Pembina River banks west of the Lodgepole-Cynthia road. Forty five boys and five adults attended and were in for a very wet but enjoyable weekend.

Many of the early Cub and Scout masters and group committee members are still connected with the Scout movement. Some of these men who contributed five to twelve years service are, Walter Krause, Jack O'Rourke, Doug Aspeslet, Fred Tookey, Jack McLean, Jack Heyland, Alan Horne, Howie Janzen, Ray Wickens and Jack Tyler. (Apologies to any who are not mentioned).

In 1956 the Scout's sponsor was a citizens group but changed in 1960 to the Rotary Club which is their current sponsor. The local group committee was instrumental in setting up the new Pembina District Council in 1961-62 and has provided one of the most successful Scout Districts in the province. This district, which includes most of the communities from Whitecourt to Lodgepole and from Evansburg to Peers, has over 500 active Cubs and Scouts. Presently Drayton Valley has two Scout troops and three Cub packs, a total of approximately one hundred boys.

Routine Business For CoC Executive

Routine business was covered at a meeting of the executive of the Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce last week.

The Chamber will again sponsor the annual 4-H beef achievement day and members of the agricultural committee will work with 4-H leaders in planning the event.

One new committee chairman was named at the meeting. He is Alex Zubot who will head the Industrial Development Committee.

Next general meeting of the group will be Thursday, March 2nd.

REBELS IN PROVINCIALS

The Drayton Valley Rebels have entered the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association Provincial Playdowns. The Rebels drew Morinville in the first series, a two game, total point affair. The first game was played last Saturday night in Morinville and the rampaging Rebels scored a 6-5 victory to take a slim one point lead in the series. The two teams face off again Friday night at the Centennial Civic Centre at 9:00 p.m.

From all accounts Morinville has a young team, a team which plays the fast, rugged type of hockey that is pleasing to the spectator. As you know the Rebels have played a spectacular brand of hockey all season and are capable of some pretty rapid scoring, often when it is most needed to spell victory. So Friday night's encounter shapes up as quite a hockey game. The winners go on to greater heights in the Provincial Playdowns while the losers fade into oblivion. There is that much at stake and you can bet that both teams will be giving their utmost to the cause Friday night. Make it a point to be at the Civic Centre. You will see one fine hockey game.

BIG HOCKEY WEEKEND

Over and above Friday night's event the weekend features a super charged hockey program from start to finish. The Rebels have two league games. Saturday they play the trailing Jasper Totems and Sunday they face the Hinton Hawks in an all out battle for first place in the Northwest Hockey League. Saturday's game is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. at the local civic centre while Sundays home encounter is billed for 2:00 p.m.

Minor hockey is in the spot light Saturday afternoon with Whitecourt visiting Drayton Valley at the Bantam level. Game time is 2:00 p.m. At 4:00 p.m. the Drayton Valley Hotel Oilers, our Pee Wee team will host a team possibly from Edson or Onoway. On Thursday the L.B. Motors Tigers, our Bantam team are in Warburg and on Friday they travel to Onoway. Even the Mites face some out of town competition this week. Commissioner Hugh MacKenzie has arranged for Swanee's team to play Lodgepole on Tuesday evening at the Civic Centre while the Red Wings will go to Lodgepole for a Sunday afternoon game. All considered, we have an all inclusive hockey program which offers plenty of hockey and ice time for all concerned.

WHO'S NEW

February 17 - Mrs. Reinhold Juengling (Luise), Tomahawk Boy - 8 lbs. 11½ ozs.

February 17 - Mrs. Erwin Dalke (Vera), Warburg, - Boy - 8 lbs. 14 3/4 ozs.

The winner of this week's heaviest baby contest is Mrs. Erwin Dalke with her boy weighing 8 lbs. 14 3/4 ozs. Mrs. Dalke may pick up her spoon at:

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE

Due to the Drayton Valley-Morinville hockey game Friday evening, the regular public skating period from 8:30 to 10:00 p.m. will be cancelled. The public skating enthusiasts, however, are not losing out here since two hours of hockey scheduled time was allotted to public skating last Sunday afternoon. We are all even in this respect going into March, the last full month of the winter season.

LADIES GYM CLASSES

It seems that interest has waned in the Ladies Gym Classes held on a weekly basis at St. Anthony's School Gymnasium. The classes are held every Tuesday night from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. under the direction of Linda McMorris. The club has 24 paid up members and of late only a fraction of this number are attending. Linda and those few in regular attendance would like to see the other members of the club at St. Anthony's on Tuesday evening.

SWIMMING PROGRAM UNDER STUDY

This may seem most unseasonal to mention swimming in February, however, time flies and it will not be long before the 1967 swimming program will be our prime concern. Presently the entire program is under study and changes in operation and schedule will certainly be made for the coming season. Some changes may be of a drastic nature, however, steps must be taken to remedy the rather unsatisfactory operation of 1966.

Jack Mosdell Winnipeg Bound

Mr. Jack Mosdell, manager of the Hudson's Bay Company store in Drayton Valley for the last four years, learned recently that his new posting will be to the Northern Department head office in Winnipeg.

Jack will be employed in the sales promotion department. He expects to leave here with his family in April.

He will be replaced here by Mr. Ken Retallack, present manager of The Bay store in Rocky Mountain House.

Catering Workshop to Be Held at Seba Beach

The Department of Agriculture Extension Branch is sponsoring a catering workshop to be held at the Seba Beach school on March 1st from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Any person or club involved in catering to groups will be interested in this program.

Items to be covered include: Efficient Kitchen arrangement as related to work areas and storage; Food Purchase and Costing; Food Sanitation; Menu Planning; Table Service including table setting, service, head table arrangements and help required.

Featured speaker is Miss Doreen Strynadka, recently appointed food and nutrition specialist for the Department of Agriculture. Your District Home Economist, Marlene Jubenvill, will also be speaking to you.

Bring your own lunch and coffee.

Please tell your friends and neighbours about this workshop as we will not be holding a another of this nature in the Seba Beach area for several years.

The science class was having its final test and one of the questions was "Which are the last teeth to appear in the mouth? One youngster answered simply, "False." Perfect score.

In The Legislature

By Mrs. C. R. Wood, M.L.A.

Monday of the second week in the Legislature, M. Maccagno (Lib) Leader of the Opposition led off in the debate on the reply to the Speech from the Throne. He was critical of the Throne Speech stating it was too full of continued study and research and not enough action on many important matters.

He moved an Amendment to the Speech which stated, "After 32 years of the opportunity for study, Your Honour's address has failed to plot courses of action to help our Metis citizens; to assist our citizens residing in pockets of poverty; to give direction to our growing urbanized industrial society; to help solve the basic problems concerning agriculture in the Province; to help Alberta farmers who are caught in the cost-price squeeze; to give meaning and direction to the recently established Department of Youth; to provide some measure of relief to home-owners from the heavy burden of taxation for educational purposes; to plan for the increased utilization of our facilities for higher learning by our ever-growing school population; to bring modern standards into Alberta for the care and treatment of our mentally ill citizens and to implement in the above mentioned areas what the citizens of the Province have been led to believe is a fundamental principle of Social Credit, namely "Whatever is physically possible and desirable can and should be financially possible."

On a voice vote the amendment was declared lost by Mr. Speaker.

The first cabinet minister to enter the debate was Hon. L.C. Halmrast, Minister of Public Welfare. He told of the re-organization of his Department which in the future will look after the apprehension of neglected children, applications for wardship and children's maintenance while they wait court appearances leading to wardship in cities.

He reported increasing difficulty in placing children for adoption and in 1966 the Province cared for 6,025 children with 1,635 placed with a view to adoption.

In reply to a question, Hon. A.J. Hooke announced that new legislation will allow Alberta municipalities the option of applying either a business tax or machinery tax. Municipalities can calculate how much tax money it will collect under either system and apply the one they wish.

Lee Leavitt (S.C. Calgary Queen's Park) suggested that the Provincial Government should assume the responsibility for educating Alberta's treaty Indians since such Indians are not receiving proper education under Federal jurisdiction.

John Horan (S.C. Edmonton-Jasper Place) asked the Government to give consideration to placing a University Campus in Jasper Place.

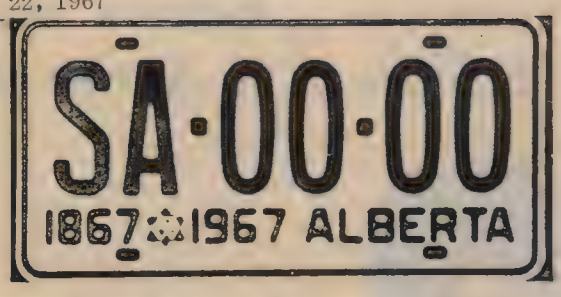
E.H. Gerhart (S.C. Edmonton Northwest) stated that retired judges should not be named Ombudsman, because they do not fit in the desirable age category and after many years on the bench have exercised absolute authority for a long time and may have difficulty in using a new approach to problems.

On Wednesday, Premier Manning named the Commitee to study the 220 applications for Ombudsman and to recommend to the Assembly the applicant it considers most suitable for appointment for the position. Mr. A. Ludwig was named Chairman and members were E.H. Gerhart, R.B. Ells, R.A. Speaker and M. Maccagno.

Robt. Simpson (S.C. Calgary North) strongly urged the Provincial Government for an Alberta flag because it is the only Province in Canada without its own colors.

K. French (S.C. Handhills) told of rat infestation in his constitutency and deplored the slaughter of coyotes--the natural destroyer of the rats. Alberta can no longer boast of being "rat-free".

Garth Turcott (NDP Pincher Creek-Crowsnest) tabled his evidence on Hon. A.J. Hooke, Minister of Municipal Affairs alleging improprieties in land exchanges with the City of Edmonton in the 1950's. Evidence relating to business deals with E.W. Hinman former Provincial Treasurer were also tabled. Premier Manning stated that such documentary evidence asking an enquiry and quoting evidence out of its context is no evidence of guilt. After reading the tabled material, consideration will be given to whatever action is evident.



'67 Vehicle Licenses Are Green On White

Alberta vehicle license plates for 1967 will provide an added safety factor for provincial motorists by being "reflectorized" to give vehicles approaching an unlit stationary vehicle on the highway some warning that there is an obstruction in their path.

Marking Centennial year, the green on white plate also carries a representation of the Centennial symbol and the dates 1867-1967.

Over 670,000 vehicle license plates of all types were issued in 1965. The total for 1966 is expected to be approximately 710,000 and the projection for 1967 slightly short of 750,000. Department of Highways records indicate that Alberta vehicle registrations increase approximately 5% annually for all types of vehicles and trailers.

Prefix letters for passenger cars this year will be "B", "C", "E" and "H" used in conjunction with fourteen secondary letters.

Initial distribution will give southern Alberta the "B" series, northern areas the "H" series and advantage has been taken of the letter series for the year by providing Edmonton and Calgary with "E" and "C" series respectively. It is pointed out this allocation is used only in the initial distribution of license plates and would not be applicable later in the year as plates are re-distributed throughout the province as required.

Night Driving Hazard

An extremely important factor in many serious accidents, particularly rear-end collisions, is a tendency of many drivers to over-drive their headlights.

If you can't bring your auto to a stop within the distance illuminated by your headlights bad trouble may be in store. This is especially important when overtaking slow-moving vehicles whose speed (or lack of it) is often deceiving.

Campers to Hit the Trail

Four hundred thousand campers will hit the trail in 1967--but with a difference.

They will follow the original water trails travelled more than two hundred years ago by the voyageurs and fur traders.

The Canadian Camping Association with the financial help and encouragement of the Centennial Commission, is preparing this exciting project as its way of celebrating Canada's Centennial of Confederation. Involved will be campers, 13 to 16-year-olds, from the 1600 summer camps across Canada. All types of camps will be represented--private camps, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts, Sea Scouts, YMCA, YWCA, church camps and disabled children's camps to mention a few.

The CCA's plan will be more than just a big canoe trip for the kids. Known as the "Centenary Journey", it has three main objectives.

The first is to map the famous transcontinental water highways used for exploration and commerce during the 17th and 18th centuries. The second is to take the young campers over the actual routes, teaching them along the way the historical importance of the areas they cover. And lastly, when it's all over, to compile a guidebook for Canadians and visitors to Canada, outlining routes that may be taken by outdoorsmen, families, anyone who likes to canoe camp and study history.
